REPORT NO.

1. Two Polish diplomatic couriers traveled from Rio de Janeiro to Buenos Aires on PAA flight 265 of 10 September 1951, and returned to Rio on PAA flight 264 of 13 September. They were listed as Stanislaw Gozdek, age 27, married, bearer of diplomatic passport #000551, and Zeron Wieniakowski, age 32, married, bearer of diplomatic passport #000321.
2. They returned to Rio carrying several large bags, and went directly to the Polish Legation, where they remained during their stay in Rio. The only members of the Legation staff to confer with them were Eusebio Dworkin, Charge d'Affaires, Adam Golobowicz, 1 and Ignacy Sachs, 1
3. Soon after Gozdek and Wieniakowski arrived in Rio, the Polish Legation requested visas from the British Embassy to permit them to stop at Port-of-Spain, Trinidad, en route to New York. These visas were denied, and they were forced to obtain Venezuelan visas for travel to New York via Caracas. Gozdek and Wieniakowski departed from Rio on 18 September on PAA flight 204.
4. Gozdek and Wieniakowski again departed from Rio for New York on 10 October on PAA El Presidente flight 201.
